

Cachapoal Valley | Central Valley Region | Chile

Chateau Los Boldos Tradition Reserve Merlot

VINTAGE

GRAPE VARIETY 100% Merlot

APPELLATION Cachapoal Valley

HARVEST The grapes are carefully selected and sorted to ensure only the highest quality fruit is used.

VINIFICATION

Undergoes a vinification process that emphasizes fruit expression and careful handling. It begins with grapes harvested from their vineyards in the Cachapoal Valley, Chile, known for its Mediterranean climate and ideal conditions for Merlot. The winemaking process focuses on preserving the natural flavors and aromas of the fruit, resulting in a balanced and elegant wine.

ANALYSIS Alcohol: 13,5%

AGEING Is aged in French and American oak barrels for 12 months, according to VINVM.

TASTING NOTES

Colour: bright Ruby .
Nose: Generous aromas of ripe plum, blackberry and blackcurrant with a hint of dried herbs.
Palate: it is bright and well-balanced with fine-grained tannins, lively acidity, and a soft, elegant finish.

RATINGS -

CERTIFIED Conventional

TECHNICAL SHEET